

OLIVE WYNDHAM TO MARRY W. K. BRICE

Actress's Engagement to Son of Late U. S. Senator Is Announced.

WEDDING THIS SUMMER

Announcement was made yesterday of the engagement of Olive Wyndham, the actress, to W. Kirkpatrick Brice, son of the late United States Senator, of 693 Fifth avenue and 60 Wall street. The engagement is the outcome of a long standing friendship and it is understood that the marriage will take place this summer.

Miss Wyndham is the sister of Janet Beecher and has appeared in more than a score of prominent plays since 1902, when she made her debut in "Mice and Men" with Annie Russell. One of her recent portrayals was the character of Mary in "What Happened to Mary," produced about two years ago at the Fulton Theatre.

Mr. Brice is a member of the University Club, of the City Club, City Club, Racquet and Tennis Club, and is a graduate of Harvard in the class of 1905. He lives with his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Brice, at 693 Fifth avenue. His sister, Helen Brice, is prominent in New York social circles. The family has a summer cottage in Newport. Mr. Brice is an enthusiastic sportsman.

Miss Wyndham was born in Philadelphia and educated in Chicago, first going on the stage when a child of but 6 years and playing minor juvenile parts. She subsequently appeared with Eleanor Robson (Mrs. August Belmont) in "The Strife," with "The Magic Melody" and with William Hodge in "The Man from Home." Miss Wyndham has also acted in prominent roles in "The Cottage in the Air," "Strife," "The Thunderbolt," "The Only Son," "Oliver

MISS LAWRENCE TO BE HARRIMAN BRIDE

Engagement to Eldest Son of Railroad Financier Announced Here.

WEDDING IN SEPTEMBER

The engagement of Miss Katie Lanier Lawrence, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Lawrence, to William Harriman was announced here yesterday by Charles Lanier of 30 East Thirty-seventh street, grandfather of the bride. The wedding, according to friends of the pair, will take place early in September at Lenox, Mass., where Mr. Lanier has an extensive country place, Allen Winden.

Miss Lawrence, who is 22 years old, has been at Lenox since the early part of June. She was thrown from her horse a few months ago when riding in Central Park with Mr. Harriman and their engagement was rumored at that time.

Mr. Harriman is the eldest son of E. H. Harriman and has taken his father's place in several directorates. He makes his home with his mother at 1 East Sixty-ninth street, New York. The family's country home is at Arden, N. Y. When the late Harriman died in 1909 he left his entire estate of more than $50,000,000 to his wife, but it was said then that he had already provided liberally for all his children. Young Mr. Harriman was graduated from Yale two years ago. He was born on November 15, 1891, and from early youth he got instruction in the railroad business and spent most of his vacations in firing locomotives, surveying new lines and working in the shops and offices.

He is interested in rowing, and in 1913, when still an undergraduate, was made head coach of the varsity crew, after he had spent a long period in England studying the rowing methods of the Britons. Another of his favorite sports is breeding, training and racing trotting horses. His interest in that made him a member of the Jockey Club, and he has been taken part in many contests in the country around Arden.

Miss Lawrence has taken a prominent part in the social affairs of New York, Washington and Virginia.

ENGAGEMENTS ANNOUNCED.

C. E. Schall, Jr., to be Married to Miss Kate Gordon Willis.

Society is interested in the announcement of several summer engagements. Mrs. Gordon Willis has announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Kate Gordon Willis, to Charles Edward Schall, Jr., of this city. Miss Willis, who is a great favorite in society, was introduced formally three years ago last winter at a ball given for her by her grandaunt, Mrs. Clarence Gray Dinsmore, at the Waldorf.

Miss Willis is a great-granddaughter of the late Addison Jerome, a great-grandchild of the late Leonard Jerome and is therefore a distant cousin of the late William H. Vanderbilt. She is fond of outdoor life and is a keen enthusiast of the race and hunt meets held on Long Island each season.

Mr. Schall is a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Schall, Jr., who have a country place, Rockbourne, at New London, Conn. He was graduated from Harvard this year.

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Cecile Tesson Thayer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin H. Thayer, to Douglas Gibson of this city. Miss Thayer, who was introduced to society two years ago, has been prominently identified with the activities of the Junior League, having taken part in several of the entertainments given by that organization. Her sister, Miss Marie R. Thayer, was introduced to society last winter. Mr. and Mrs. Thayer and their daughters are at Lawrence, L. I., for the summer.

Mr. Gibson was graduated from Yale in 1906. He is a member of the Junior Club and is one of the board of governors of the Yale Club. No date has been mentioned for the wedding.

Mr. Gibson was graduated from Yale in 1906. He is a member of the Junior Club and is one of the board of governors of the Yale Club. No date has been mentioned for the wedding.

Mr. Gibson was graduated from Yale in 1906. He is a member of the Junior Club and is one of the board of governors of the Yale Club. No date has been mentioned for the wedding.

Mr. Gibson was graduated from Yale in 1906. He is a member of the Junior Club and is one of the board of governors of the Yale Club. No date has been mentioned for the wedding.

Mr. Gibson was graduated from Yale in 1906. He is a member of the Junior Club and is one of the board of governors of the Yale Club. No date has been mentioned for the wedding.

Mr. Gibson was graduated from Yale in 1906. He is a member of the Junior Club and is one of the board of governors of the Yale Club. No date has been mentioned for the wedding.

Mr. Gibson was graduated from Yale in 1906. He is a member of the Junior Club and is one of the board of governors of the Yale Club. No date has been mentioned for the wedding.

Mr. Gibson was graduated from Yale in 1906. He is a member of the Junior Club and is one of the board of governors of the Yale Club. No date has been mentioned for the wedding.

Mr. Gibson was graduated from Yale in 1906. He is a member of the Junior Club and is one of the board of governors of the Yale Club. No date has been mentioned for the wedding.

Mr. Gibson was graduated from Yale in 1906. He is a member of the Junior Club and is one of the board of governors of the Yale Club. No date has been mentioned for the wedding.

Mr. Gibson was graduated from Yale in 1906. He is a member of the Junior Club and is one of the board of governors of the Yale Club. No date has been mentioned for the wedding.

"Villa does not wish to become President." - Gen. Angeles.

GAY 4TH PLANNED FOR SOUTHAMPTON

Cottage Colony Entertaining Many Visitors Over the Holiday.

SOUTHAMPTON, L. I., July 2.—Many visitors for the triple holiday arrived to-night and plans have been made to make the week end a gay one for the cottage colony.

The board of governors of the Suffolk Hunt Club gave a dinner to-night at the clubhouse, followed by a dance at the pavilion under the direction of Mrs. Juliana Cutting. Many dinner parties were given.

To-morrow there will be an afternoon tea followed by dancing at the clubhouse given by Mrs. Dyer.

A dance will be given at the Shinnecock Hills Golf Club to-morrow evening by Mrs. Harry W. McVicker. These dances will be continued for six weeks. The patronesses are Mrs. Edward Van Ingen, Mrs. Henry Sage, Mrs. Rufus L. Patterson, Mrs. Goodhue Livingston, Mrs. Joseph S. Dilworth and Mrs. L. M. Sprout.

Mrs. E. M. Dyer gave a small luncheon to-day for Mrs. Toler, who is the guest of Mrs. Dyer.

Mrs. E. M. Dyer gave a small luncheon to-day for Mrs. Toler, who is the guest of Mrs. Dyer.

Mrs. E. M. Dyer gave a small luncheon to-day for Mrs. Toler, who is the guest of Mrs. Dyer.

Mrs. E. M. Dyer gave a small luncheon to-day for Mrs. Toler, who is the guest of Mrs. Dyer.

Mrs. E. M. Dyer gave a small luncheon to-day for Mrs. Toler, who is the guest of Mrs. Dyer.

Mrs. E. M. Dyer gave a small luncheon to-day for Mrs. Toler, who is the guest of Mrs. Dyer.

Mrs. E. M. Dyer gave a small luncheon to-day for Mrs. Toler, who is the guest of Mrs. Dyer.

Mrs. E. M. Dyer gave a small luncheon to-day for Mrs. Toler, who is the guest of Mrs. Dyer.

Mrs. E. M. Dyer gave a small luncheon to-day for Mrs. Toler, who is the guest of Mrs. Dyer.

Mrs. E. M. Dyer gave a small luncheon to-day for Mrs. Toler, who is the guest of Mrs. Dyer.

SUFFRAGE EVENTS TO-DAY

WOMEN'S POLITICAL UNION. 12 Noon, 1 P. M. and 2 P. M.—Meetings at Riving Shop "Winner," Madison avenue and Twenty-third street.

1 P. M.—Sixteenth Senatorial district, Manhattan, outdoor meeting at First avenue and Eighty-seventh street.

2 P. M.—Twentieth Senatorial district, Manhattan, outdoor meeting at Fifth avenue and 110th street.

WOMAN SUFFRAGE PARTY. 3:30 P. M.—Fourteenth Assembly district, Manhattan, canvassing party starts from the home of Miss Maud Haas, 228 East Thirty-sixth street.

7:30 P. M.—Twentieth Assembly district, Manhattan, canvassing party starts from the home of Mrs. Clara Buchold, 307 East Seventy-eighth street.

1:15 P. M.—Seventeenth Assembly district, Manhattan, canvassing party starts from the home of Mrs. Clara Buchold, 307 East Seventy-eighth street.

7:30 P. M.—Suffrage hearing at Island City, Methodist Episcopal Church, 125 West 125th street, City Island, the Rev. Hugh W. Egerton, pastor. Speaker, Mrs. Mary D. Fiske.

QUEEN MARY'S GUILD TO SELL STAMPS HERE

The need for supplies in the hospitals of the Allies is so great that in order to raise funds and create a broader spirit of sympathy for the wounded British soldiers, the Queen Mary's Needlework Guild will issue a series of stamps next week which will be sold for two cents each. They will be sold at news stands, hotels and railroad stations.

The first proof of the stamps will be sent to Queen Mary with an endorsement, and the Guild will keep up its work during the entire summer, its officers have announced, because of the increase in the number of wounded which has made it almost impossible to find enough supplies to care for them. It is reported by the guild that the British Government recently ordered 200,000 hospital beds.

The shortage of supplies in the English hospitals is such that the guild and the British Government recently ordered 200,000 hospital beds.

The shortage of supplies in the English hospitals is such that the guild and the British Government recently ordered 200,000 hospital beds.

The shortage of supplies in the English hospitals is such that the guild and the British Government recently ordered 200,000 hospital beds.

The shortage of supplies in the English hospitals is such that the guild and the British Government recently ordered 200,000 hospital beds.

The shortage of supplies in the English hospitals is such that the guild and the British Government recently ordered 200,000 hospital beds.

The shortage of supplies in the English hospitals is such that the guild and the British Government recently ordered 200,000 hospital beds.

The shortage of supplies in the English hospitals is such that the guild and the British Government recently ordered 200,000 hospital beds.

The shortage of supplies in the English hospitals is such that the guild and the British Government recently ordered 200,000 hospital beds.

MIDDLETOWN ESTATE MADE FREE TO PUBLIC

The Goodmans Throw Open Gray Craig Before Leaving Newport.

NEWPORT, July 2.—The Rev. and Mrs. Frederick W. Goodman, the latter formerly Mrs. J. Mitchell Clark, started from here to-day for California, where they may take up their home.

Mrs. Goodman before leaving directed that Gray Craig, her Middletown estate, should not be closed, but left open to the public to roam through the gardens.

The guests of the Gray Craig, Mrs. William Groveson gave a small dance at Roslyn this evening in honor of her daughter, Miss Anita Groveson.

Mrs. Lucille Carter gave a young people's luncheon at the Morris, Clinton and Morgan Belmonts is the guest of Miss Margaret F. Andrews, his fiancée.

Malcolm M. D. Hunter is visiting George P. Messersmith, Albert Hopkins and Henry Barrett are guests of Stuart Duncan.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Street of New York are visiting Mr. and Mrs. George Peabody Buehler at the Morris, Clinton and Morgan Belmonts.

Mr. and Mrs. Amos Tuck French, A. de Navarro and Capt. Elliott Dunbar are the guests of Mrs. George Peabody Buehler.

Mr. and Mrs. William Paine Thompson have taken possession of their summer home, 125 West 125th street, City Island.

Mr. and Mrs. William Paine Thompson have taken possession of their summer home, 125 West 125th street, City Island.

Mr. and Mrs. William Paine Thompson have taken possession of their summer home, 125 West 125th street, City Island.

Mr. and Mrs. William Paine Thompson have taken possession of their summer home, 125 West 125th street, City Island.

Mr. and Mrs. William Paine Thompson have taken possession of their summer home, 125 West 125th street, City Island.

Mr. and Mrs. William Paine Thompson have taken possession of their summer home, 125 West 125th street, City Island.

Mr. and Mrs. William Paine Thompson have taken possession of their summer home, 125 West 125th street, City Island.

Mr. and Mrs. William Paine Thompson have taken possession of their summer home, 125 West 125th street, City Island.

Mr. and Mrs. William Paine Thompson have taken possession of their summer home, 125 West 125th street, City Island.

Mr. and Mrs. William Paine Thompson have taken possession of their summer home, 125 West 125th street, City Island.

Mr. and Mrs. William Paine Thompson have taken possession of their summer home, 125 West 125th street, City Island.

FETES OF FOURTH FOR THREE DAYS

As Nation's Birthday Falls on Sunday, Celebration Will Begin To-day.

BIG PLANS FOR MONDAY

As to-morrow is Sunday as well as Fourth of July, the celebration of Independence Day will begin at sundown this evening and continue with seemingly moderation to-morrow until midnight next Monday. Plans have been made by city officials and various organizations to fill almost every hour of the time with meetings, parades and other varieties of "safe and sane" celebration.

The Manhattan Borough Safe and Sane Fourth of July committee, of which Borough President Marcus M. Marks is honorary chairman, has arranged for the first part of the celebration, which will be held at 8 o'clock this evening at 82 Second avenue, the home of the League of Foreign Born Citizens.

To-morrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock there will be motion pictures and speeches at the Neighborhood Play house at 455 Grand street under the auspices of the Henry Street Settlement. At 8:30 to-morrow evening the program will be given at the old block house at 110th street and Central Park.

Many Other Meetings. For those who do not get up so early there will be plenty of celebrations later in the day. Mayor Mitchell will observe the time honored custom of commemorating the day at the City Hall by presiding at a luncheon at 12 o'clock.

At 10:30 o'clock there will be a band and music and speeches by Comptroller William A. Prendergast, Judge Peter S. Grosscup of the Second Circuit Court, Collector Dudley Field Malone and W. Bourke Cockran.

The Independence Day Committee, of which George Gordon Battle is chairman, is in charge of the arrangements for this meeting, as well as the plans for a dozen or more other meetings which will be held in various parts of the city during the afternoon and evening.

The suffragists will take a prominent part in the observance of the day. The suffrage yacht "Tourist" will sail to Red Hook island at 6 P. M. in charge of Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt of the Empire State committee, accompanied by a flotilla of vessels of all kinds.

Miss Margaret Wyckoff will read the women's appeal for liberty at the Statue of Liberty. Miss May Peterson, the prima donna, will sing "The Star Spangled Banner" at Claremont Hill, 129th street and the Hudson River.

What promises to be the most impressive meeting of the day will be held at the Lewisohn Stadium at 8:30 o'clock to-morrow evening. A song rally is planned, with John C. Dempsey as leader, at which the 10,000 persons that the stadium will be able to hold will join in singing every patriotic song and hymn from "America" to "Dixie" to the accompaniment of a military band of fifty pieces.

Lewisohn and Others to Speak. There will also be addresses by Adolph Lewisohn, the donor of the stadium, Borough President Marks, Hamilton College and John Hedges, Mayor and Florence Walton, dressed as Uncle Sam and Miss Columbia, will dance and the Edison 3,000-candlepower searchlight, the latest creation of the inventor, will play on the nearby buildings.

Other meetings have been arranged at the following places and hours: 10 A. M.—Carl Schurz Park, Mount Morris Park, Greely square, Columbus Circle, Seward Park.

10:30 A. M.—City Hall, Fort Washington Park, Public School 63.

12 M.—A salute of forty-eight guns at Governors Island.

12:30 P. M.—Times Building.

2 P. M.—Colonial Park.

4 P. M.—Central Park Mall and Isham Park.

5 P. M.—Grant's Tomb, Chelsea Square, Hudson Park, Riverside Drive at Ninety-seventh street, Soldiers' and Sailors' Monument, Madison Square, Central Park Mall, Washington Square, Battery Park, Corlears Hook Park, Yorkville Playground, Morrisville Park and John Jay Park.

8:30 P. M.—Stadium, City College.

ACTOR SON DISINHERITED. Mrs. Cutting's Will Recalls Minnie Seligman's Wedding.

The will of Mrs. Judith Carter Cutting, who died on June 29, left her entire estate to her son, James D. Cutting, a 21-year-old son of her first husband, Robert L. Cutting, Jr., who died in 1910, with $100,000, and concerning the bequest she said:

"It is my earnest wish, hope and desire that he shall not in any way share in my estate either directly or indirectly, but that he shall be a faithful, diligent and unfaithful to me."

Mrs. Cutting executed her will after her son was married in 1912 to Miss Evelyn Seligman, daughter of the late Seligman, who died in 1908, and who caused him to be disinherited by his father, Robert L. Cutting, who died in 1910. The son, who had become an actor, contested his father's will, but the court upheld it.

Mrs. Cutting executed her will after her son was married in 1912 to Miss Evelyn Seligman, daughter of the late Seligman, who died in 1908, and who caused him to be disinherited by his father, Robert L. Cutting, who died in 1910. The son, who had become an actor, contested his father's will, but the court upheld it.

Mrs. Cutting executed her will after her son was married in 1912 to Miss Evelyn Seligman, daughter of the late Seligman, who died in 1908, and who caused him to be disinherited by his father, Robert L. Cutting, who died in 1910. The son, who had become an actor, contested his father's will, but the court upheld it.

Mrs. Cutting executed her will after her son was married in 1912 to Miss Evelyn Seligman, daughter of the late Seligman, who died in 1908, and who caused him to be disinherited by his father, Robert L. Cutting, who died in 1910. The son, who had become an actor, contested his father's will, but the court upheld it.

Mrs. Cutting executed her will after her son was married in 1912 to Miss Evelyn Seligman, daughter of the late Seligman, who died in 1908, and who caused him to be disinherited by his father, Robert L. Cutting, who died in 1910. The son, who had become an actor, contested his father's will, but the court upheld it.

Mrs. Cutting executed her will after her son was married in 1912 to Miss Evelyn Seligman, daughter of the late Seligman, who died in 1908, and who caused him to be disinherited by his father, Robert L. Cutting, who died in 1910. The son, who had become an actor, contested his father's will, but the court upheld it.

NEARING DROPPED AS UNFIT, SAY ALUMNI

Thirty-three U. of P. Graduates Declare Free Speech Not Involved.

HIS THEORIES ATTACKED

PHILADELPHIA, July 2.—In a statement issued by thirty-three alumni of the University of Pennsylvania to-day the recent dismissal by the trustees of Dr. Scott Nearing is defined and approved.

The statement says that the reasons for his dismissal did not involve the right of free speech, but hinged on the question of his personal fitness for the position he occupied.

"The Nearing case has been so presented to the public as to appear to be a right to free speech, a university teacher to free speech. Freedom of speech, however, is not the real issue in this case. The question is one of the personal fitness for the position he occupied."

"The right to freedom of speech, restrained by common sense and common decency, is a right that has never been trampled upon or abridged by the University of Pennsylvania. There are certain twinned limitations on this right, one of which is the right of the university to dismiss a teacher who is unfit for the position he occupies."

"In this right of independent thought and liberty of speech there inheres in the case of the teacher also a similar obligation to his students to exercise the obligation that that freedom be exercised in absolute regard for the rights of other men. If, then, it shall be shown that a teacher is unfit to teach, to give to others knowledge out of the fulness of his own, do not carry on your further education in your classroom, but go elsewhere."

Do not seek repute by astonishing, untested theories which may attract attention and admiration as much to your prescience as to your ignorance. It is not among the privileges of the teacher to be a bore or a nuisance.

"The rules which Prof. Schelling so stated were clearly violated in and out of the university by Dr. Nearing, whose behavior was persistent and astonishing expressions of untested theories, and whose unrestrained condemnations of institutions and rules which have been the basis of civilized society, passed the most generous bounds of free speech allowed by any institution and gained for Dr. Nearing a notoriety and a discredit which reflected upon the university."

"The alumni could not fail to perceive this situation and many of them have thought that the trustees were slow in severing a connection that subjected the university to continual criticism."

"In discharging his duty, Dr. Nearing's services have been given effect to the judgment of a large majority of the members of the university faculties, of the students and of the alumni."

THE BRISTEDS ENTERTAIN 150. Dance Is Given for Their Younger Daughters at Lenox.

LENEX, July 2.—Mr. and Mrs. Charles Astor Bristed gave a dance at Lenox to-night in honor of their youngest daughter, Miss Grace Bristed. The house was filled with guests, and the dancing was kept up until midnight.

Miss Bristed, who is now a student at the Lenox Club, is a very popular young woman, and her dance to-night was a great success.

Miss Bristed, who is now a student at the Lenox Club, is a very popular young woman, and her dance to-night was a great success.

Miss Bristed, who is now a student at the Lenox Club, is a very popular young woman, and her dance to-night was a great success.

Miss Bristed, who is now a student at the Lenox Club, is a very popular young woman, and her dance to-night was a great success.

Miss Bristed, who is now a student at the Lenox Club, is a very popular young woman, and her dance to-night was a great success.

Miss Bristed, who is now a student at the Lenox Club, is a very popular young woman, and her dance to-night was a great success.

Miss Bristed, who is now a student at the Lenox Club, is a very popular young woman, and her dance to-night was a great success.

Miss Bristed, who is now a student at the Lenox Club, is a very popular young woman, and her dance to-night was a great success.

Miss Bristed, who is now a student at the Lenox Club, is a very popular young woman, and her dance to-night was a great success.

Miss Bristed, who is now a student at the Lenox Club, is a very popular young woman, and her dance to-night was a great success.

Miss Bristed, who is now a student at the Lenox Club, is a very popular young woman, and her dance to-night was a great success.

Miss Bristed, who is now a student at the Lenox Club, is a very popular young woman, and her dance to-night was a great success.

Miss Bristed, who is now a student at the Lenox Club, is a very popular young woman, and her dance to-night was a great success.

Miss Bristed, who is now a student at the Lenox Club, is a very popular young woman, and her dance to-night was a great success.

Miss Bristed, who is now a student at the Lenox Club, is a very popular young woman, and her dance to-night was a great success.

Miss Bristed, who is now a student at the Lenox Club, is a very popular young woman, and her dance to-night was a great success.

Miss Bristed, who is now a student at the Lenox Club, is a very popular young woman, and her dance to-night was a great success.

Miss Bristed, who is now a student at the Lenox Club, is a very popular young woman, and her dance to-night was a great success.

Miss Bristed, who is now a student at the Lenox Club, is a very popular young woman, and her dance to-night was a great success.

MOVIE STARS ARE NOT UNQUE, COURT RULES

Valeska Suratt Case Decision May Make Contract Jumping Safe.

Motion Picture Actors and Actresses

will be able to jump contracts with impunity, in the opinion of lawyers, if a ruling made yesterday by Justice Goff is upheld by the higher courts.

The Justice of the Peace, Judge Play Company, Inc., used as an injunction against Miss Valeska Suratt for appearing for the Fox Film Corporation in a picture produced by "The Sun of Broadway," in which she starred, on the ground that it holds a contract for her services, and in support of the application for the injunction, because her services are unique and extraordinary the plaintiff will be injured.

Miss Suratt denied the contention of the plaintiff and asserted that her value as an actress is not unique and extraordinary, but that she is a "movie star" in the ordinary sense of the word.

In refusing to grant the injunction Justice Goff said: